RE: Religious Exemption for Immunizations

Due to our religious beliefs, we feel that by giving (name of child) _____ immunizations, it would conflict with our exercise of religious tenets and practices.

Our religious beliefs include the following:

“We believe in God, and that God has created us in his image. In being created in God’s image, we are given his perfect immune system. We are bestowed with His gift, the immune system. We believe it is sacrilegious and a violation of our sacred religious beliefs to violate what God has given us by showing a lack of faith in God. Immunizations are a lack of faith in God and His way, the immune system.”

“We believe in Jesus’ many promises of protection for us, and He loves us, and will take care of us if we place our trust in Him. We believe that immunizations show no faith in God’s promises of protection for us, saying to God that you trust man more than His holy words of protection for us.”

“God desires us to love Him and our neighbors first and foremost. This is His first command. By loving Him, we are to fully trust on Him for all things. He is our Lord Father. He is our Rock, our fortress, and our Savior.”

“Our faith is in God and in the Holy Word, being the Holy Bible which is authored by God. This is the instruction book for living that He left us and in it, He is our protector and we stand firm on His promise. Our faith is in Him!”

“And hearing this, Jesus said to them, ‘It is not those who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick; I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.’” (Mark 2:17)

“Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God and ye are not your own?” (1st COR 6:19)

“That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.” (1st COR 2:5)

“You must know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is within the spirit you have received from God. You are not your own.” (1st COR 6:19)

“As a consequence, your faith rests not on the wisdom of men but on the power of God.” (1st COR 2:5)

“I know with certainty on the authority of Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself: it is only when a man thinks something unclean that it becomes so for him.” (Romans 14:14)

“If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, and you are that temple.” (1st COR 3:17)

“For to his angels he has given command about you, that they guard you in all your ways.” (Psalms 91:11)
